

As the summer approaches, departments may see turnover in personnel. If this is the case, you may need to rethink the individuals assigned to contribute to the department's BCP. If you have new individuals you wish to add or would like to delete past employees access to the department's BCP, please email Charlyn Loera cjl124@pitt.edu. If a significant amount of the department has left, consider signing up for another training session.
